How to Access My Reports on Exam Track

You will receive an automated email message letting you know that your Exam Event has progressed to the next stage. For example: Exam is now Ready for you to add learners, Event is now live. You will also receive emails from our LAMDA team whenever a change is made to your schedule, during the planning stage. When you receive these notifications, please Login to LAMDA and ensure you check the information on the reports and print out, as required.

Step by Step Guide to Accessing your Report

1. Log in to ExamTrack by entering your Username and Password<sup>i</sup>, provided by LAMDA, via the Login page available here: Welcome To ExamTrack!

The image shows the LAMDA login interface. At the top is the LAMDA logo in purple. Below it is a text input field containing 'teacher test'. Underneath that is a password input field with masked characters '.....'. A blue 'Log in' button is positioned below the password field. At the bottom, there is a link that says 'Forgotten your password?'.

2. Select 'My Sessions' from the Left Hand toolbar.

Step by Step Guide to Printing Reports

1. Open the PDF document.
2. Select the Print Icon from the top toolbar
3. To print the entire report, select your printer from the list, select the number of copies, ensure ALL Pages option is selected and then click 'Print'.
4. To only print or save specific pages of the report (e.g. Special Attention Report to show reasonable adjustments applied)
  - a. Select Microsoft Print to PDF (to store the pages as a PDF), or select your Printer from the drop down list if you require a paper copy.
  - b. Select number of copies.
  - c. Select the Open text field under the 'Pages' header and insert relevant page numbers. If you want a range of pages, detail numbers from and to with a hyphen (-) separating (e.g. 1-5). If you need non-consecutive pages separate each page number with a comma and a space (, )(e.g. 1, 3, 7, 13). Combinations of these methods can also be used (e.g. 1-5, 12, 17-19).
  - d. Click 'Print'.
