JOB PURPOSE

The primary focus of this role is to introduce the Production and Technical Arts students to the skills required and roles within a Theatre Stage Management Department. The role requires the individual to give class to the students as well as supporting them in their delivery of practical show roles.

Be the departmental lead for the technical discipline, ensuring that practice keeps pace with current industry practice technically, and in terms of environmental sustainability and inclusivity, and providing advice to course leaders/Head of Technical Training on matters of course and teaching and learning development particular to the discipline.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- To supervise all Stage Management work and student teams assigned to the Department on all LAMDA productions, and to ensure that such productions run to schedule and to budget in liaison with the Lead Practitioner (Technical) Production Management
- Teaching and acting as a personal tutor to students to deal with and, where appropriate, triage non-academic aspects of the student experience.
- Develop, implement and manage a sustainable practice within the Stage Management Department
- To provide formative feedback to students in class.
- Where required, to set assessment tasks, mark formally assessed work (subject to moderation by the Head of Technical Training) and act as a principal marker for any assessment tasks they have set.
- To undertake organisational and administrative tasks directly related to your own teaching.
- To review the outcome of your teaching and contribute feedback to the review and forward planning.
- To maintain academic and/or professional standards and work in accordance with LAMDA policies
- To help students absorb knowledge, build upon it and help them to overcome any problems they encounter in understanding and applying knowledge.
- To prepare, schedule and deliver SM lectures to students in liaison with the SM Tutor and as directed by the Head of Technical Training
- To manage departmental budgets and petty cash.
- To oversee the preparation, technical and dress rehearsals and performances in LAMDA's theatres or other performance spaces
- To ensure the adherence to relevant Health and Safety guidelines on all production work carried out by students at LAMDA
- Giving lectures and classes as directed by the Head of Technical Training and carrying out any other teaching duties deemed necessary as a member of the teaching staff of the Production & Technical Arts – Stage and Screen (PTASS) course, and generally supervising all student work in the capacity of a Trainer.
- To help develop and maintain a custom and practice within the Department that is up to date with that of the industry.

- To care for the personal and professional well-being of students on the Production & Technical Arts course.
- To maintain the fabric/equipment of the Stage Management Department, including prop stores, offices and other Stage Management departmental work spaces.

- To sit on the Interview Panel for new PTASS Students
- To undertake the Fellowship programme of the Higher Education Academy
- To attend all meetings as requested by Head of Technical Training
- To be prepared to make a contribution in at least two of the following four themes to underpin changing practice at LAMDA:
 - Access and Inclusion - widening access and inclusion within the school and outside. Engagement through recruitment, audition squad, access summer school and exams. Anti-Racist and Inclusive Teaching practice and pedagogy. Commitment and experience of facilitating modern ensemble - co-creation, facilitation of safe spaces, zero-tolerance and conflict resolution - to foster collaboration and creativity.
 - Development of Individual Health, Wellbeing and Resilience building - a holistic approach to training the individual to empower and build confidence and practice for the professional world - journaling, mindfulness, mental wellness, personal coaching, life plans, leadership development and mentoring.
 - Development of multi skilled Artists and Creative Technicians for a sustainable creative skills sector with relevant experience and practice in making sustainable theatre, content production and promotion across all platforms, creative access and inclusion, creating and delivering socially engaged work for a wide range of audiences and stakeholders.
 - Digital - supporting the digitisation of LAMDA in teaching, learning, research, knowledge exchange, technical theatre, screen and audio and other platforms

ABOUT LAMDA

LAMDA is a leader in performing arts training and strives for excellence in every facet of our organisation, and 2019 marks the beginning of a new chapter of growth. Following the completion of our new facilities in west London, the Academy will welcome Sarah Frankcom Director and is now fully registered as an independent HEP (Higher Education Provider). These changes are exciting and critical to the long-term sustainability of LAMDA, bringing with them our ambitions to be an even more accessible LAMDA, representing people from all corners of the UK and beyond in recruiting and training the most creative and innovative theatre makers.

Founded in 1861, LAMDA (London Academy of Music & Dramatic Art) is a world-leading conservatoire offering exceptional vocational training to actors, stage managers, technicians and directors. In addition to six validated degree programmes, LAMDA offers a Foundation Diploma and a number of validated semester and summer short courses.

In July 2018, LAMDA joined the register of Higher Education Providers, a key step towards achieving degree awarding powers. From 2019-20 LAMDA will operate independently from the Conservatoire of Dance and Drama, receiving funding directly from the Office for Students.

The work of the Academy is complemented by that of LAMDA Examinations, through which LAMDA offers a drama and communications-based syllabus leading to accredited and non-accredited awards in the UK and overseas. In 2017 - 18 108,190 people in 33 countries took a LAMDA Examination.

In 2017, LAMDA moved into its new £28.2m centre for world-leading drama training. LAMDA's new home features ten large training and rehearsal studios, three theatres - the 200 seat Sainsbury Theatre, 120-seat the Carne Studio Theatre and the Linbury Studio, and a fully equipped digital and audio suite. In January 2018, LAMDA alumni Benedict Cumberbatch was appointed the Academy's President, and in February 2019, Sarah Frankcom was appointed LAMDA's new Director

LAMDA Alumni include Nikki Amuka-Bird, Patricia Hodge, Janet Suzman, Chiwetel Ejiofor, Jeremy Irvine, Rory Kinnear, Harriet Walter, Rose Leslie, Paterson Joseph, David Oyelowo, Katherine Parkinson, Toby Stephens, David Suchet, Sam Claflin, Leah Harvey, and Ruth Wilson, among many others.
