JOB PURPOSE

The primary focus of this role is to introduce the Production and Technical Arts students to the skills required and roles within Film and TV drama production. The role requires the individual to give classes to the students as well as supporting them in their delivery of practical film unit roles.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- To provide lectures and/or teaching in small groups of students
- To discuss, with the Head of Screen and Audio, the broad content of the teaching to be undertaken and the methodologies for/purposes of that teaching.
- To prepare for the teaching sequence by drawing together relevant knowledge from their research/professional experience and undertaking any necessary scholarship to cover the range of teaching input required.

- To prepare for each teaching session by selecting and preparing the content, deciding upon any exercises/materials to be used and planning their approach to the session.
- To ensure that content, methods of delivery and learning materials will meet the defined learning objectives for their sessions.
- To contribute to the quality of the Drama School by contributing on the basis of their research/professional knowledge.
- To help students absorb knowledge, build upon it and help them to overcome any problems they encounter in understanding and applying knowledge.
- To promote depth of learning by providing clarification of material taught, responding to student questions, facilitating discussion in classes, providing any supplementary explanation/material required and introducing them to new issues raised in recent research and/or current professional practice.
- To provide individual academic advice/support to students, including advice on appropriate reading and recent developments.
- To provide formative feedback to students in class.
- Where required, to set assessment tasks, mark formally assessed work (subject to moderation by the Head of Screen and Audio) and act as a principal marker for any assessment tasks they have set.
- To undertake organisational and administrative tasks directly related to your own teaching.
- To review the outcome of your teaching and contribute feedback to the review and forward planning.
- To maintain academic and/or professional standards and work in accordance with LAMDA policies
- To oversee the pre-production and production of LAMDA's films, (including budget management, freelance staff engagement, kit hires) as directed by the Head of Screen & Audio
- To deliver film production lectures to PTASS students as directed by the Head of Screen & Audio
- To train PTASS students in all aspects of film/TV production management, including on-set roles as assistant directors, using industry-standard software (eg. Movie Magic Scheduling/Budgeting)
- To ensure the adherence to relevant Health and Safety guidelines on all production work carried out by students at LAMDA
- To help develop and maintain a custom and practice within the Department that is up to date with that of the industry.
- To deliver tutorials to the PTASS students assigned to the Screen and Audio Department and draw up written assessments of the students at the end of each Screen & Audio rotation in conjunction with the Head of Technical Training.
- To carry out any other teaching duties deemed necessary as a member of the teaching staff of the PTASS course, and generally supervising all student work in the capacity of a trainer.
- To care for the personal and professional well-being of students on the PTASS course.
- To attend all meetings as requested by the Head of Screen & Audio
- Any other duties as specified from time to time by the Head of Screen & Audio.

- To be prepared to make a contribution in at least two of the following four themes to underpin changing practice at LAMDA:
  - a. Access and Inclusion - widening access and inclusion within the school and outside. Engagement through recruitment, audition squad, access summer school and exams. Anti-Racist and Inclusive Teaching practice and pedagogy. Commitment and experience of facilitating modern ensemble - co-creation, facilitation of safe spaces, zero-tolerance and conflict resolution - to foster collaboration and creativity.
  - b. Development of Individual Health, Wellbeing and Resilience building - a holistic approach to training the individual to empower and build confidence and practice for the professional world - journaling, mindfulness, mental wellness, personal coaching, life plans, leadership development and mentoring.
  - c. Development of multi skilled Artists and Creative Technicians for a sustainable creative skills sector with relevant experience and practice in making sustainable theatre, content production and promotion across all platforms, creative access and inclusion, creating and delivering socially engaged work for a wide range of audiences and stakeholders.
  - d. Digital - supporting the digitisation of LAMDA in teaching, learning, research, knowledge exchange, technical theatre, screen and audio and other platforms.

ABOUT LAMDA

LAMDA is a leader in performing arts training and strives for excellence in every facet of our organisation, and 2019 marks the beginning of a new chapter of growth. Following the completion of our new facilities in west London, the Academy will welcome Sarah Frankcom Director and is now fully registered as an independent HEP (Higher Education Provider). These changes are exciting and critical to the long-term sustainability of LAMDA, bringing with them our ambitions to be an even more accessible LAMDA, representing people from all corners of the UK and beyond in recruiting and training the most creative and innovative theatre makers.

Founded in 1861, LAMDA (London Academy of Music & Dramatic Art) is a world-leading conservatoire offering exceptional vocational training to actors, stage managers, technicians and directors. In addition to six validated degree programmes, LAMDA offers a Foundation Diploma and a number of validated semester and summer short courses.

In July 2018, LAMDA joined the register of Higher Education Providers, a key step towards achieving degree awarding powers. From 2019-20 LAMDA will operate independently from the Conservatoire of Dance and Drama, receiving funding directly from the Office for Students.

The work of the Academy is complemented by that of LAMDA Examinations, through which LAMDA offers a drama and communications-based syllabus leading to accredited and non-accredited awards in the UK and overseas. In 2017 - 18 108,190 people in 33 countries took a LAMDA Examination.

In 2017, LAMDA moved into its new £28.2m centre for world-leading drama training. LAMDA's new home features ten large training and rehearsal studios, three theatres - the 200 seat Sainsbury Theatre, 120-seat the Carne Studio Theatre and the Linbury Studio, and a fully equipped digital and audio suite. In January 2018, LAMDA alumni Benedict Cumberbatch was appointed the Academy's President, and in February 2019, Sarah Frankcom was appointed LAMDA's new Director

LAMDA Alumni include Nikki Amuka-Bird, Patricia Hodge, Janet Suzman, Chiwetel Ejiofor, Jeremy Irvine, Rory Kinnear, Harriet Walter, Rose Leslie, Paterson Joseph, David Oyelowo, Katherine Parkinson, Toby Stephens, David Suchet, Sam Claflin, Leah Harvey, and Ruth Wilson, among many others.
